

Current WBC International champions

up to 16th October 2020

In difficult times we have to grit our teeth until the bad moment is over.
We had a sensational WBC virtual Convention and Lic. Mauricio Sulaiman Saldivar has been confirmed as WBC President for the next 4-year term.
A guarantee for the entire global boxing movement, indeed.

Before the outbreak of covid-19, the Committee had promoted several championships in only two months, with eighteen more title bouts already regularly sanctioned and scheduled to happen between March, April and May.
The virus has been biking many parts of the world and all activities have been seriously jeopardized, not only boxing.

After the lockdown (still in place in several countries) , we have managed to come back with a good activity:

- The Middleweight Championship
- A successful defence of Uruzquieta (135 Silver)
- New champion in Nicaragua (118 Silver)
- Two very successful Championship in Tijuana
- The new SuperLightweight champion (Ohara Davies)
- A great Championship in Dubai with new champ Maxi Hughes
- The new WBC International 168lbs Silver champion (Petro Ivanov)

More title bouts on the line as reported below.
