

WBC International Titles

up to
Wednesday 20th November 2020

In difficult times we have to grit our teeth until the bad moment is over. Before the outbreak of covid-19, the Committee had promoted several championships in only two months, with eighteen more title bouts already regularly sanctioned and ready to happen between March, April and May. The virus has been biking many parts of the world and all activities have been seriously jeopardized, not only boxing. After the lockdown (still in place in several countries) we have managed to come back with a good activity:

The Middleweight Championship	160 Lbs
A successful defence of Uruzquieta	135 Silver
New champion in Nicaragua	118 Silver
Two very successful Championships in Tijuana	2 bouts
The new SuperLightweight champion	Ohara Davies
A great Championship in Dubai with a new champ	Maxi Hughes
The new WBC International 168lbs Silver champion	Petro Ivanov
The new WBC International Welterweight champion	Rashidi Ellis
The new WBC International SuperWelter champion	Tursynbay Kulakhmet

Unfortunately, three scheduled Championships in November have had to be cancelled due to different factors, mostly the pandemic .

Mr. Francis Warren will now reschedule the following vacant Championships:

WBC International Super Bantamweight and the WBC International Silver Featherweight Championships.

The two championships were to take place on 13th November at the Studios in London. More to come.

WBC International Featherweight Championship

December 5th 2020 in London

Isaac Lowe (champion) vs Álvaro Rodríguez (Spain)

This championship was eventually called off .
